

mathematical bodies.

2) Know your OS
How OS
what is OS ? How it's work
- Operating system is a top notch layer on computer which commands and helps to do tasks

How OS works

OS has bootloader. It boots the system when we start a computer.

Task Manager

It is also a Application shows about how much of amount of installed application take memory and how that process and how task are process and also for end task.

It controlled all system softwares which will start work when computer start at startup.

1) Processes : Shows about running tasks

2) Performance : Graphically visualization about computer tasks

1) How CPU usage

2) How much memory usage

3) Disk space

4) WIFI - bandwidth

5. GPU -> How much percent its usage

3) Startup apps:- apps start working at when computer on

4) Users:- Details of pc user

5) Details:- current processing tasks

6) Services:- System Services and necessary application which helps to use computer safely.

-> Device Manager:-

Its also application shows information about drivers, networks, device related information which are necessary for computer works and additional drivers which we can install device manager has authority to add or update drivers.